

Day 1: October 4

Opening

Mihi Whakatau
Tākuta Ferris

Co-Convenors' Welcomes
Serena Stein & Sita Venkateswar

Keynote 1: Maywa Montenegro de Wit
"A Provocation on Agroecology and the 2021 UN Food Systems Summit"

Chair: Serena Stein

Panel I. Ideologies, Tools, and Advocacy

Discussants: Paige West; Mike Goldsmith

The contradictions of conviviality (and their resolution)

Graeme MacRae

Between a rock and a chainsaw: Convivial tools, labour productivity and European peasants

Simon Popay

Social movements as living labs of conviviality and their (in)formal transnational context in the Balkans

Milica Kočović De Santo

Climate ethics based on conviviality theory in a Brazilian perspective

Frederico Salmi

Keynote 2: Bram Büscher

“A Provocation on Convivial Politics: Exclusion, Unmaking, and Limits”

Panel II. Conservation Politics

Discussant: Anselmo Matusse

Conviviality and the Bay of Bengal Littoral

Debojyoti Das

Becoming-with pewen: Understanding human-tree entanglements and its challenges to conservation

Robert Petitpas

Paludiculture as conviviality on peatland: A farming system that supports ecosystem restoration

Ibnu Budiman

Dewilding ‘Wolf-land’: Understanding historical drivers of human-wildlife conflict in Ireland

Dara Sands

Day 2: October 5

Keynote 3: Reginaldo Haslett-Marroquin
“A Provocation on Decolonising Agriculture and Scaling Up Regenerative Systems”

Chair: Alice Beban

Panel III. Cultivation Beyond Productivism

Discussants: A. R. Vasavi; Dirk Roep

Teikei: A Japanese concept of sharing the harvest - nature's gifts should be shared with all
Hiroko Amemiya

Who wants to be a good farmer? Accounting for a more-than-production counter culture of farming in rural Australia
Nicolette Larder

Conviviality through crop swapping
Heidi McLeod

Intersections in agriculture and conservation: Approaches to Food System Resilience in Niagara
Ursula Bero

Day 3: October 6

Keynote 4: Andrés León Araya

“A Provocation on the Plantation as Anti-Convivial Machine”

Chair: Andrew Dickson

Panel IV. Extraction, Labour, Ecologies

Discussants: Kuntala Lahiri-Dutt; Alice Beban; Andrew Flachs; Vinicius Furuie

Conviviality without environmentalism: An ethnography of illegal logging in Indonesian Borneo

Paul Hasan Thung

The actual and virtual socio-political ecologies of “camp life” on fruit orchards in the Okanagan

Kathleen Hutton

Bright spot ethnography: The analytical potential of things that work

Sarah Osterhoudt

Panel V. Botanical Relations

Discussants: Andrew Flachs; Vinicius Furuie

Children of the palms: Sago-human convivialities in West Papua

Sophie Chao

New tropicalities, oil palm in the post plantationocene

Michelle Lai Jingmin

Crop wild relative conservation, re-staging domestication narratives, and the promise of convivial futures

Anna-Katharina Laboissière

Day 4: October 7

Keynote 5: Annu Jalais “A Provocation on Convivial Solidarities”

Chair: Sita Venkateswar

Panel VI. Multispecies Relations

Discussants: Piers Locke; Dana Powell; Alyssa Paredes

Between conflict and conviviality: Human-wildlife encounters and the political animal geography of land development

Sören Köpke

‘Meet the family’: Interspecies relatedness as a politics of conviviality and conservation on Australian heritage breed farms

Catie Gressier

Caring for nonhumans beyond nature-culture dualism: Elephant conservation, mahoutship labour, and multispecies entanglements in Sumatra, Indonesia

Lubabun Ni'am

Symbiotic futures: Examining changes in the microbe/human relationship in agriculture

Holly Brause

Wild life and wild death: Conviviality and the necropolitics of rewilding

Edda Starck

Day 5: October 8

Keynote 6: Pounamu Skelton

“A Provocation About Healthy Roots: A Story of Hope Through Growing Kai with Indigenous Wisdoms”

Chair: Hone Morris

Panel VII. Indigeneity and Decolonisation

Discussants: Margaret Forster; Laura Pereira

Expressing post-human legalities in Andean community life-projects: Decolonising human rights from below

Rosemary Coombe and David Jefferson

How do we remap the settler-colony? Encounters between Maori cultural mapping, expert knowledges and multi-functional landscape design in Aotearoa NZ

Ritodhi Chakraborty and Hirini Matunga

Panel VIII. Convivial Placemaking: A Roundtable Discussion

Discussants: Juliana Mansvelt; Sarah Osterhoudt

Let's start with nature connection: Practicing, sharing, learning and trying to understand it

A digital roundtable discussion led by Dr. Vitalija Povilaityte-Petri

Day 6: October 9

Keynote 7: Yanniek Schoonhoven

“A Dialogue on Being a Young Regenerative Farmer in the European Countryside”

Chair: Trisia Farrelly

Panel IX. Conviviality through Peatlands

Discussant: Kuntala Lahiri-Dutt

RE-PEAT host this collective brainstorm session at the intersection of conviviality and peatlands.

Panel X. The Urban Convivial

Discussants: Max Ajl; Matt Henry

Designing convivial spaces

Edward H. Huijbens

Volunteer participation in urban agriculture: How conviviality helps to drive change

Daniel Kelly

Wild Sargasso Sea: Social labor, conviviality and the future of unions

Brandon Hunter-Pazzara